NMMU Off-Campus Housing

Off-Campus Accommodation

When you decide to live off campus, you become a member of the community. Your neighbours may be retirees, working families with children or even fellow students. Be considerate and always remain aware of your actions/behaviours and its impact on others.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION WHEN APPLYING FOR ACCREDITED OFF CAMPUS HOUSING:

Applicants must be accepted by the Nelson Mandela Metropolitan University (NMMU) for a full-time study program.

Applications must be received by the Off Campus Housing Office on or before the 17th of December or at least 5 day prior to arrival.

Applications can be emailed OR faxed to 041 504 9661.

NSFAS and Sponsored students are advised to do the following:

Copy of sponsorship/loan letter must accompany all application forms.

Proof of payment of refundable deposit must accompany all application forms (as required by the off campus service providers).

Students must choose accredited off campus accommodation within the budget range of Financial Aid or/and the Sponsor.

NSFAS rental allocation cannot exceed R2250/month.

Students referred to off campus accommodation must go and view the various properties accredited for on the official NMMU website/apply for accommodation/off campus accommodation/accommodation.....

For further information, please do not hesitate to contact the accommodation service providers.

The Off Campus Housing Office (OCHO) is pleased to offer students affordable, well managed accredited off campus housing options. The houses may be located within walking distance to available public transport or NMMU shuttle service.

Even though these properties are accredited by the OCHO, the University holds no legal jurisdiction and students' take up lease agreements in their own capacity. All students are advised to stay in accredited off campus accommodation for at least one semester. In the event of students choosing to stay in non-accredited properties, the OCHO will not be held liable for any dissatisfaction and problems that arise there nor for accommodation payments.

It is advisable that you secure your accommodation prior to departure from home and payment of deposits will ensure all bookings are made timeously.

It is recommended to bring at least 10 days living expense payments (for your food, personal items, etc.) Access to student accounts/cards will only be given after date of registration.
